

FACULTATIVE MUTUALISM

THE POTENTIAL OF ART
IN ENRICHING
EXPERIENCES AND DEEPENING OUR LEVEL
OF UNDERSTANDING IN DISCIPLINES OTHER THAN THE ARTS.

BACHELOR THESIS
MAGDALENA PAZ TORRES MANDIOLA
JANUARY 2017

TABLE OF CONTENTS

1. Introduction	3
2. Art as experience: Dewey	6
2.1.1. Defining Experience	6
2.1.2. Perception	9
2.1.3. The act of expression and the expressive object	10
2.1.4. Substance of Art	12
3. Contemporary Discourse	13
3.1.1. The Arts And The Creation Of Mind: Elliot W. Eisener	14
3.1.1.1.1. Rightness of Fit	14
3.1.1.1.2. Cognitive Functions of the Arts	15
3.1.1.1.3. Future of Art-Based Research	17
3.1.2. Case Study: Black Mountain College 1933-1957	19
3.1.2.1.1. From Resistance to Birth	20
3.1.2.1.2. Process not Results	21
4. Question of Method	24
5. Field Notes and Diaries	26
5.1.1. Essence Of Thought- Building Relationships	28
5.1.2. Drawing as a thinking mechanism	28
5.1.3. Ideational Drawing	29
5.1.4. Importance of Line	30
5.1.5. Journals in the art practice	31
6. Conclusion	32
7. Literature and media references	36